‘NIGHTMARE NIGHTS’ BRINGS SCARE ATTRACTION TO THE ISLE OF MAN...

Port Erin based ‘IF (Inspired Futures) Ltd’, a new specialist event management company, are bringing the island’s first scare attraction to Castle Rushen in November 2018...

Scare attractions have become increasingly popular over the last decade, with over 100 now operating in England, and over 1000 in the USA. Nightmare Nights is the first of its type to take place on the Isle of Man, and is the first of many new projects from If Ltd.

Michelle Stavert, Managing Director of If Ltd, said “Inspired Futures are thrilled to be bringing such a new, exciting, unique and exhilarating experience to the Isle of Man, Castle Rushen is going to come alive with scares, and for every ticket purchases, we are donating £1.00 to Rebecca House children’s Hospice”.

Nightmare Nights unlocks the haunted halls of Castle Rushen, presenting the first annual 20-minute scare attraction experience on the Isle of Man between November 14th and 17th 2018...

Meet the Master of the Castle and his creepy court of servants and spectres in a terrifying interactive experience which combines live scareactors with special effects.

Designed with everyone in mind, Nightmare Nights - Castle Rushen takes guests on a fright-filled journey through the 16th century keep, presenting the chambers in a way never seen before... Will you survive?

Nightmare Nights is a brand-new scare entertainment event which will be hosted at different venues on the Isle of Man each year. If Ltd have commissioned UK based AtmosFEAR! Scare Entertainment to design and produce the event. The production company is Europe’s biggest scare entertainment provider and have produced over 200 scare attractions in multiple countries.

Advance tickets are available online at www.nightmarenights.co.uk at £16.00 per body, plus booking fee, or £20.00 if purchased on the door.
